

Wind and Guns Berry/O'Hay

Intro:

C7 B9 (2x)

Verse:

E - - - G

High pressure moving in

CM7 Gm7 B9 E

From the couch as a storm front

E - - - G

Makes its way down the stairs

CM7 Gm7 B9 C7

The dining room is braced for trouble.

B-Section:

C7

It's windows covered with

B9

Broken Treaties, The

C7

Spoons shake

B9

Inside their drawers

Verse:

Tanks stampede through the halls

An Army gathers in the study

Soldiers burn books for warmth

As generals bellow in

B-Section

Into Microphones promising

Blood, when a

Package arrive in the mail, a strange silence

Pins itself to the trees.

Chorus

G C

Wind and Guns:

Am D

Some sit quiet in empty fields

G C

Wind and Guns:

Am

A breath from madness.

D G

A spark away from tears

G C

Wind and Guns:

Am D

Wind and Guns

Lead Verse

The fan is set on low

In the hood above the oven

The kitchen had to know

About the smell of the final solution

Rain Pounds Panes that are painted closed

By a table that's set for two

A view of the backyard

Is the only way out

Chorus

Wind and Guns:

One in the same

In the brain of someone alone

Wind and Guns:

Running maneuvers

Through the Images of home

Wind and Guns:

Wind and Guns

Every house is a universe.

Some full with children.

Others with magazines.