

First Purple Light
Berry / O'Hay

Intro/ Bridge

G D Am7 C D

Verse

G D
The Time it took
Am7
To complete the act
C
Was nothing, little more
D
Than the Cry of a dove

G D
Alone she sat
Am7
As the first purple light
C
Of Dawn sifted through
D
the blinds And her Love

Chorus

Am Bm C
The first birds
Am Bm C
Had begun their song
D
Soon in the street below
Am Bm C
The cars would sing along

Am Bm C
She looked down
Am Bm C
At her hands as though
D
They were two estranged children
Am Bm C
Who had only just come home

Intro/ Bridge

G D Am7 C D

Verse

He looked like marzipan
So still and sweet
A brutish man at his best
Now so innocent, so complete

The plastic bag
That held his last breath
Well she squeezed and dropped it
In the trash by the bed

Chorus

Am Bm C
The first birds
Am Bm C
Had begun their song
D
Soon the working day
Am Bm C
would hum along

Am Bm C
She thought back,
Am Bm C
it was only yesterday
D
There didn't seem a way out
Am Bm C
No, There didn't seem a way.
