Just about midnight
 - C Em7
You could hear the alarm

Was it mine or someone else's

Why were they messing with the cars

Well, it might have been nothing
Someone fumbling with their keys
Or triggered by the rumbling
Of some kids on the street

Bm D C Em
Shattered Glass on the Pavement
Bm D C
Wasn't there the night before
Bm D C Em
Shattered Glass on the Pavement
Bm D C D
From the passenger-side door

Verse

A single-room with two kids
He's having trouble with the rent
So he's looking into parked cars
For some items he can fence

These people have insurance
But that don't make it right
It's a nightly occurrence
Until he's get caught, he stays out of sight

Chorus

Shattered Glass on the Pavement
What is missing, what will it cost?
Shattered Glass on the Pavement
First thing in the morning,
 It's pissing me off

Verse

Living in the City
Ten bags at a time
This itching isn't pretty
With this jones on the line

Strip the steering column wires
Twist together white and blue
Spark it up with the green one
Lean on the gas and be on the move

Chorus

Shattered Glass on the Pavement
It's all that's left of our way home
Shattered Glass on the Pavement
The rest stripped for parts and sold on the down-low
